Statement Explaining CPNI Procedures

Company policy dictates when and how customer information may be used. Employees first are educated on the different types of customer data. Then, instruction is provided on when CPNI data can and cannot be used. Employees are also informed that they are subject to discipline, up to and including dismissal from the company, for violating the guidelines governing the use of CPNI.

The telecommunications officer is in charge of reviewing and supervising any marketing campaign and accompanying disclosure of CPNI to any third parties.

The manager of Access One Solutions is responsible for ensuring that the implemented policies regarding disclosure and use of CPNI are followed. The manager speaks with the company's legal counsel regularly to ensure compliance with FCC regulations governing CPNI disclosure and use.
